

EUROPEAN HERITAGE
HEADS
FORUM

*An Roinn
Ealaíon, Oidhreachta agus Gaeltachta*

Department of Arts, Heritage and the Gaeltacht

European Heads of Heritage Forum (EHHF) 10th Annual Meeting Dublin Castle, 20-22nd May 2015

Shaping the Future - Heritage Led Regeneration and Consolidation
Shared Priorities and Collaborative Strategies

Department of Arts, Heritage and the Gaeltacht, Ireland in collaboration with EHHF and Troika partners

St. Patricks Hall, Dublin Castle, 20-22nd May 2015

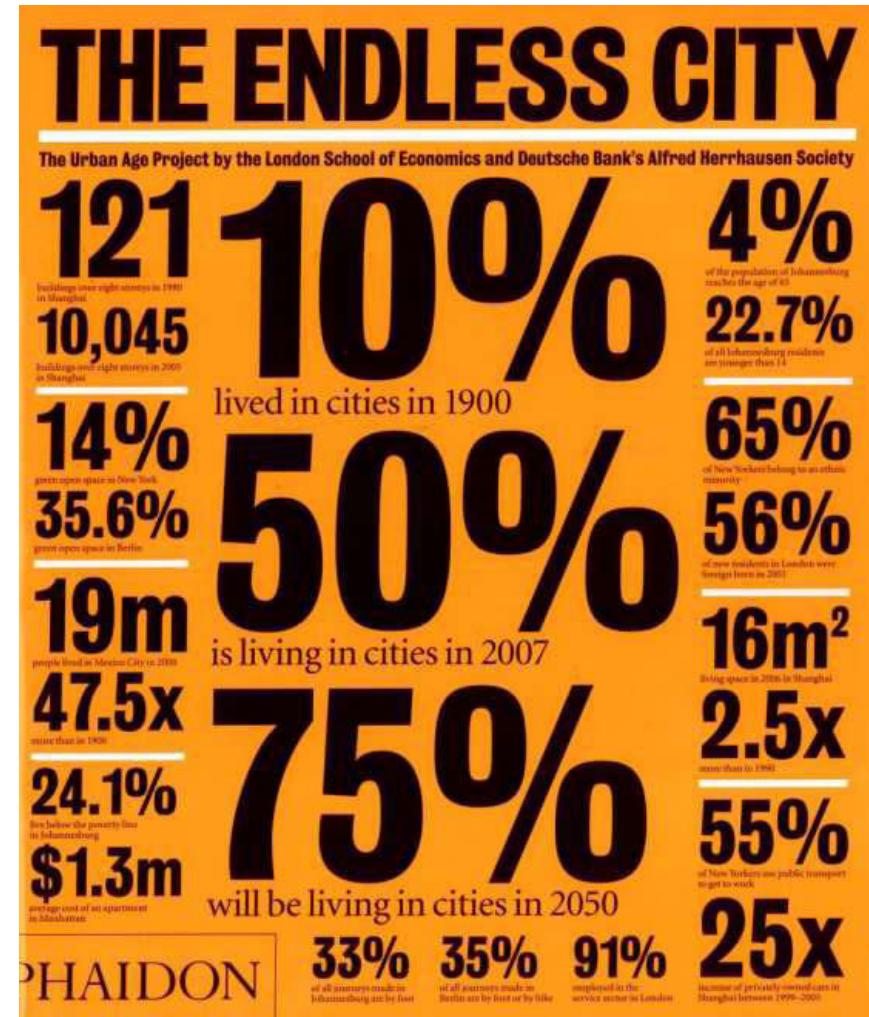

BIGGER PICTURE

The Urban Age project – the Endless City

- Population of the Irish State 1996 – 2006;
- 3.6m to 4.3m, 17% increase;
- Unevenly throughout the Gateway Urban Areas, Cities and Counties;
- Largest growth in Fingal County, Galway City, South Dublin with Cork City reduction;
- Addressing rural population decline and related heritage assets;

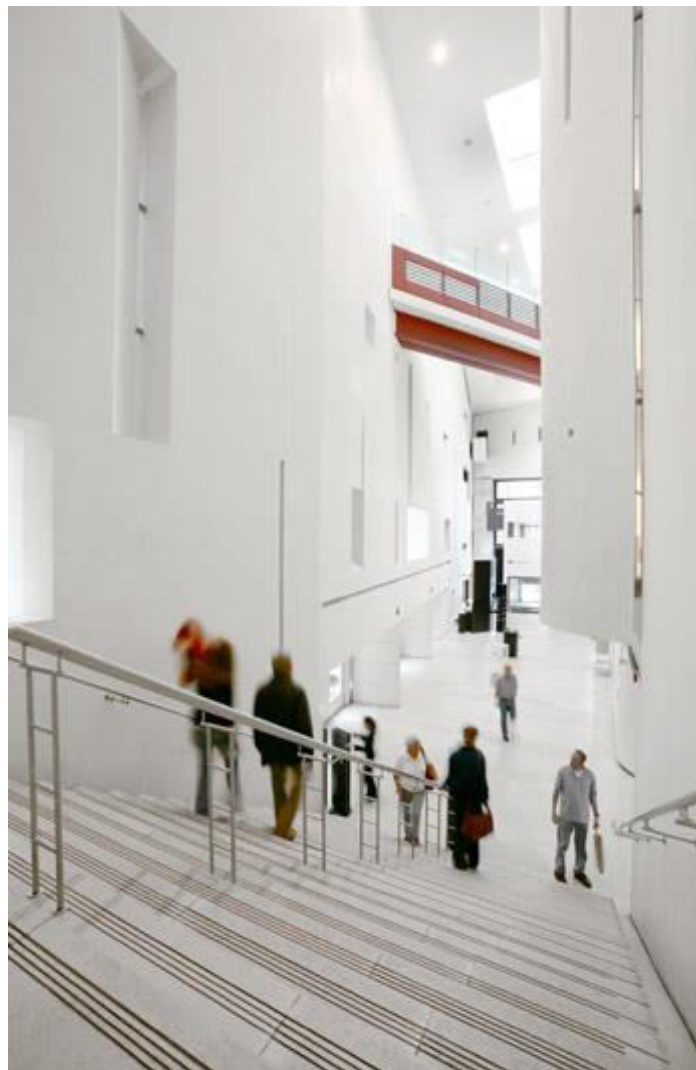

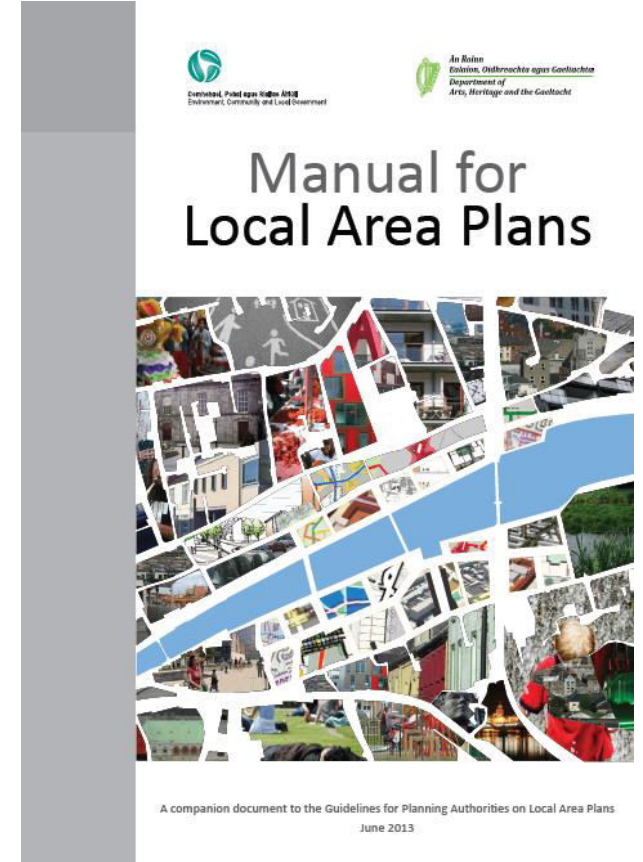

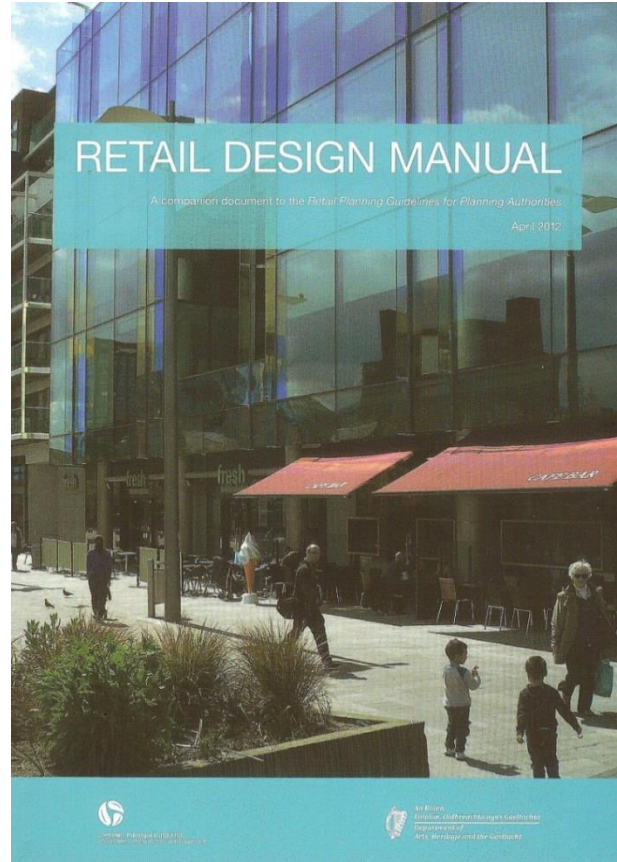

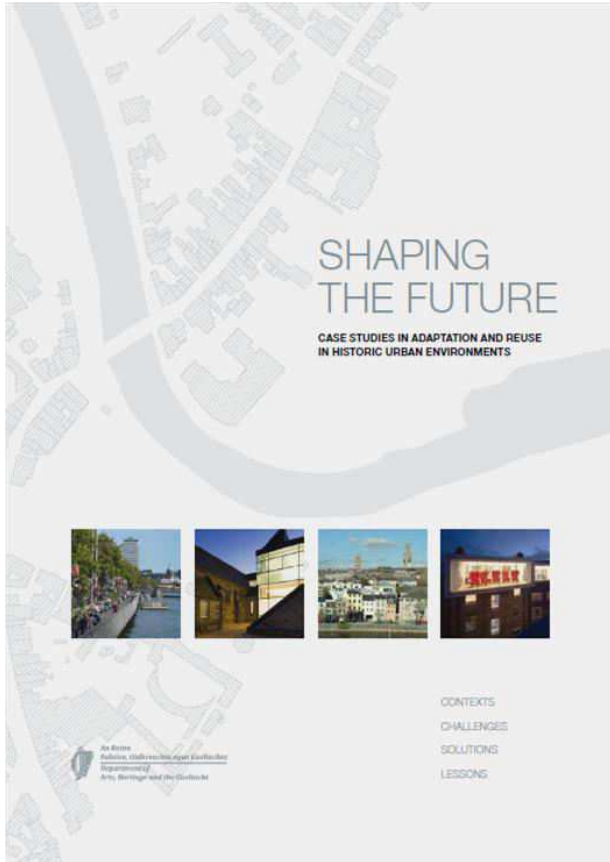

IMPLEMENTATION

Irelands Built Heritage Policy objectives in 2014 included:

- Developing Fiscal Strategies/ Incentives for Built Heritage with Department of Finance/DPER (Capital Stimulus, continued tax incentives and heritage led regeneration or reuse) incl. ERDF Funding/Horizon 2020;
- Monitor and profile all expenditure relating to the Built Heritage Capital/Current Programme of DAHG to invest in heritage renewal (Built Heritage Jobs Leverage Scheme, Historic Towns Initiative, Living City Initiative and Home Improvement Scheme 2013);
- Use and co-ordinate funding available (Rural Development programme/EU Structural Funding to invest in heritage conservation and tourism renewal;

Related Initiatives 2010-2014

OBJECTIVES

EHHF 2015 – Dublin Forum

- Addressing objectives of Re-use and Redundancy – Urban and rural;
- A dialogue on existing fiscal and financial incentives currently being deployed across Europe and a review of their effectiveness or lessons learned;
- Range of other mechanisms required to aid heritage led regeneration such as EU/national policies, guidance and regulatory standards;
- Financial models to sustain both public and private heritage assets into the future;
- Determining core heritage objectives when managing our cultural assets effectively;

Thank you

The Department of Arts, Heritage and the Gaeltacht, together with the EHHF and Troika Partners, looks forward to seeing you in Dublin in 2015